NAN Women's Council service is a true commitment of time and energy. Council members are required to participate in monthly virtual meetings which occur outside of regular business hours, in the evening. Additionally, NAN Women's Council members are required to attend NAN Chiefs Assemblies, in-person, up to 4 times per year. NAN Chiefs Assemblies are generally three (3) days in length.

NAN Women's Council members are expected to be punctual and present at every meeting. Persistent absenteeism may lead to dismissal. NAN Women's Council members may also be asked to attend interdepartmental working group/committee meetings and gatherings.

Taking into account work within and outside of Women's Council meetings, hours of commitment will probably vary between 3-5 hours per month, in addition to up to three (3) days quarterly for in-person attendance at Chiefs Assemblies or other NAN gatherings/conferences. Will you be able to make this commitment to NAN and the NAN Women's Council?

Yes No Maybe
