Boozhoo, Waciye, Aniin, Greetings,

Nishnawbe Aski Nation (NAN) is actively seeking a diverse range of presentations tailored for educators and education administrators engaged in First Nation education or working with First Nation students.

We are looking for presentations that not only showcase best practices in First Nation education but also align with the overarching theme of the forum- "Connecting for Growth and Reconciliation." Presentations should also demonstrate best practices in student success, reconciliation, land-based learning, and the importance of connection.

Preferred topics include, but are not limited to, First Nations Language and Culture, First Nations Curriculum, Transitions to Secondary or Post-Secondary School, Mental Health and Wellness, Fostering Collaborative Connections with Each Other, Reconciliation and Strengthening Relationships, Education Governance, Policy Development, Literacy and Numeracy, Parental Participation, Community Engagement, Student Engagement and Support, Land-based Learning.

NAN extends an invitation to all enthusiastic teachers, school administrators, policymakers, and education practitioners to submit their presentation applications for the 2025 Best Practices in First Nations Education Forum.

Further details regarding registrations will be shared soon!

Important Dates:

Deadline for submissions: March 14, 2025

Forum dates: April 8-9, 2025

Location: Valhalla Inn, Thunder Bay, ON

For application submissions or any inquiries, kindly reach out to Katrina via email at kfiddler@nan.ca or by phone at (807) 625-4967.

Thank you for your commitment to advancing First Nations education.

Best regards,

Nishnawbe Aski Nation
